The terrible killing on our streets Christmas Eve is evidence of the fact that we have one or more dangerous citizens in our community and should encourage our officials to be just as vigilant as possible. Pull EVERYTHING and EVERYBODY you know are VIOLATING LAW!

The first Christmas tree this year was held at the kindergarten school yesterday morning. The tree was splendidly trimmed, glittering with tinsel and hung full of beautiful presents. The general order of things was reversed in this case, the presents being from the little tots to their parents. Every present given was made by the pupil, which made them more valuable to the receivers. Before the presents were distributed the little folks went through various exercises under the direction of their teachers, and the many mothers and others present were highly pleased.

was a joyous occasion and every person present profited by it. The Misses Cherry and Childs are in love with their work, and the pupils are in love with their teachers. We sincerely hope that when the term opens after the holidays there will be a largely increased attendance. The school deserves the patronage of all.—Live Oak Democrat.

Mrs. Cay Injured.

Mrs. Raymond Cay, while being driven to the terminal station yesterday with her husband, Col. Raymond Cay, met with a very serious accident. The carriage which they occupied had a rear wheel wrenched off in the street car track, near the Alexandria Hotel, on West Bay street, and this threw Mrs. Cay to the ground, causing her to strike her head with great violence against the pavement. Fortunately, her heavy head of hair protected the skull from being fractured, although as it was her head was badly cut. Mrs. Cay is resting more comfortably this morning. It was a narrow escape from a fatal accident. Mrs. Cay has made many friends since her residence in Jacksonville, her warm heart and sweet, unaffected manners endearing her to all who know her, and her accident has been learned of with much sorrow.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

Col. and Mrs. Raymond Cay have hosts of friends in Tallahassee, who deeply sympathize with them in the accident which befell Mrs. Cay. All hope she will not suffer much from the wounds received, and that she will rapidly recover from it.

King of All Cough Medicines.

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. service for about sixteen years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by all druggists.

Mr. J. C. Trice, manager of Panacea Springs Hotel, writes us that his launch has been thoroughly overhauled, a new, improved engine put into her, and that she is now ready to take parties hunting, safely, surely and comfortably, and that it is the fastest on the Gulf coast. There is no better place for ducks, geese and other game on our coast than Panacea and its surrounding country, and sportsmen will find it an excellent place to enjoy a season's outing.

Doctors Could Not Help Her.

"I had kidney trouble for years," writes Mrs. Raymond Conner, of Shelton, Wash., "and the doctors could not help me. I tried Foley's Kidney Cure, and the very first dose gave me relief and I am now cured. I cannot say too much for Foley's Kidney Cure." It makes the diseased kidneys sound so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood. Unless they do this, good health is impossible. Sold by all dealers.

No one has confidence in a man who will allow himself to be made a "cat-paw" of that the monkey may pull the chestnut from the fire and such one usually loses what usefulness and influence he may have in a community for good.

Will it not bring comfort to the lonely and those of little strength to recall that as far as lay in their power, through forgetfulness of self, others, yet more sad and lonely, sorrowing, perhaps, as those without hope, are to be uplifted and sustained, and that the Christian festival is to bring rays of light to many such? Would it could be so that all who may need cheer?

Fire from Christmas fireworks got into some cotton under Captain R. A. Shines warehouse Monday evening, which was promptly put out by Tallahassee's efficient fire department at a small loss and Captain Shine returns his thanks in the following language: "Every member of the fire company is worthy of the praise of every citizen of our town. Their efficiency as a company cannot be excelled by any other fire company in the state. Let us continue to sing their praise."

On Thursday, January 4th, a large reception will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W.
